GOA TRIP

• It was a good experience when I went to goa, with my college friends. I feel happy to share with you about my trip my friend.

During the day, it is almost silent and not very noisy, but as the sun sets, Life begins in GOA. It gets active and people come out and start having fun. There are small restaurants which have been made in the interiors of many small houses.

The beach is the best attraction of Goa. It was so much fun to be at the beach. We played in the waters, made sandcastles, ran around, went for a swim and enjoyed the whole day. Going back we were so tired but went on laughing at the great adventures at the sea. The next day we thought we would go around Goa.

We went to Panjim and on the way saw the ship decks being lighted so beautifully that one could not just take their eye from it. There are live bands in the restaurants and we enjoyed our meal in the presence of music. We then visited some of the churches in Goa.

We enjoyed our trip and on the way back, bought some of the Goan street items, just for fun. The journey was great and the experience was wonderful. I would love to go to GOA once again when given a chance.
